INVITATION

We are delighted to invite you to the Korea International Gastric Cancer Week 2017 (KINGCA Week 2017) to take place from March 23(Thu.) to 25(Sat.), 2017 at the Bexco, Busan, Korea.

Since 2014, the KGCA has successfully held KINGCA Week three times. The basic philosophy of KINGCA is to promote the development of gastric cancer research through the relationships and cooperation of many countries by sharing our treatment technology with the world, but with a special focus on developing nations.

This event will incorporate a broad spectrum of multidisciplinary research with a diverse range of surgical experts presenting on a variety of intensive subjects making for an excellent opportunity for active discussion and networking. KINGCA Week 2017 will be the premier occasion to showcase the cutting-edge developments and innovations taking place around the globe.

As our goal is to encourage and grow international collaboration research beyond Asia, we are sure that this will be a beneficial and unforgettable experience for all participants attending from around the world.

We look forward to seeing you in Busan, Korea!

With Best Wishes,

Han-Kwang Yang

Chairman, KINGCA 2017 Organizing Committee
Chairman of the Board of Directors, KGCA
